

Let the AI Mahara Professional Development Team start you on your journey as a PADI Professional or help you to progress through the ranks of PADI Professionals. Led by our own resident PADI Course Director Kathleen Russell, you will be allocated one of our team of experienced PADI Instructors who will become your personal "Scuba Sensei" and take you through the life changing experience of taking up leadership roles in the diving industry.

See link to Personal Pictures and Short Bio Notes:

Kathleen Russell PADI Course Director has been teaching since 1996. As an experienced PADI Course Director, she has developed and trained many PADI instructors and divers throughout the years. Her focus is to develop high standard of PADI Instructors and PADI Pro's. She has taught and dived in many oceans and seas and lakes around the world. Her passion is to teach others to dive and become the best they can in and around water.
